El Shirota

is a Noise Rock/Post-Hardcore band from Atizapán, Estado de México formed in 2012 by Ignacio Gómez Kurth, Mauricio Avendaño, Alonso Salamanca and Emanuel Brenes.

Their current lineup is conformed by:

- Rubén Anzaldúa (guitar, vocals)
- Mauricio Avendaño (bass, vocals)
- Ignacio Gómez Kurth (guitar, vocals)
- Gabriel Mendoza (drums)

Soon after their foundation, the band debuted with Chiluca No Es Satélite EP in 2013.

Prior to the release of their first full-length Tiempos Raros (Devil In The Woods, 2020), the band self-released two EPs between 2015 and 2018, as well as singles “Tarde/Temprano” & “Carreta Furacão” in 2019, the latter became the #1 song of the year by Reactor 105.7’s annual top 107 list, Mexico’s most prominent alternative radio station.

Tiempos Raros granted the band critical acclaim which gave them television and video game exposure through Amazon’s documental series Chivas: El Rebaño Sagrado as well as Microsoft’s Forza Horizon 5.

In 2022 the Mexican quartet released Niebla EP on 7" vinyl via DIW. The release highlights Alonso Salamanca's (former bassist of the band) collaboration in Tibio ft. Alo, B-side of the record and the band's first exploration between electronic music and its already characteristic Noise Rock/Post-Hardcore sound.

The noise rock quartet has recently shared singles "Infuyente", "Así No Fue" and "Segmentaciones", which all form part of their upcoming sophomore album Ni siquiera estamos listos para hablar out on May 12 via Devil In the Woods.
